

The Westcliff, Parktown

115 individually decorated rooms
• restaurant • lounge • gym • 2 large heated pools • tennis court • beauty spa

Location: Parktown, 30 minutes from Johannesburg airport.

A member of the internationally renowned Orient-Express Hotels and sister to the Mount Nelson in Cape Town, the Westcliff is a haven of peaceful seclusion and is Johannesburg's only five-star city resort hotel. Located in the suburb of Parktown and created in the image of a Mediterranean village, the hotel cascades down a steep hillside through landscaped gardens. Exemplary service levels and a warm welcome ensure even the most discerning guest is well catered for.

Five nights per person twin share, flying with British Airways from:

World Traveller £1169, World Traveller Plus £1705, Club World £2949, First £4619

Above prices for travel 11Apr08-30Jun08. Extra nights from £97.

The Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa, Morningside

19 individually-designed suites • restaurant • bar • terrace • internet • gym • outdoor pool • spa • laundry

Location: Morningside, 40 minutes from Johannesburg airport

The Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa is situated in the quiet leafy suburb of Morningside, Johannesburg, and is only ten minutes from the vibrant suburb of Sandton. From here you can sample all the delights of South Africa's 'cultural capital'. This peaceful retreat is set amongst pretty gardens, and is a perfect place to relax. The warm and friendly ambience brings guests back year after year, as does the holistic healing and hydrotherapy treatments of the hotel spa or the superb menu on offer at the award winning hotel Dining-Room.

Five nights per person twin share, flying with British Airways from:

World Traveller £1199, World Traveller Plus £1735, Club World £2979, First £4649

Above prices for travel 11Apr08-30Apr08. Extra nights from £103.

