

Sofitel Los Angeles, Beverly Hills Area

311 vibrant rooms • restaurant
• rooftop sun deck (seasonal) • fitness
centre • heated outdoor pool • sauna

Location: Beverly Hills, 30 minutes from Los Angeles airport

The fantastic Sofitel Los Angeles has recently undergone an exhaustive overhaul that has resulted in the creation of one of the city's hottest places to stay, offering stylish interiors and a dramatically renovated exterior. This striking hotel is situated on the corner of La Cienega and Beverly Boulevards, across from the huge Beverly Center shopping mall. The famous Restaurant Row is just minutes from the hotel and the exclusive shops on Rodeo Drive are also nearby. Just hop in a taxi if you want to explore the legendary nightlife of Sunset Strip.

Five nights per person twin share, flying with British Airways from:

World Traveller £845, World Traveller Plus £1509, Club World £2785, First £3905

Above prices for travel 01Jan08-20Mar08. Extra nights from £90.

Fairmont Hotel Miramar, Santa Monica

302 elegant rooms • restaurant
• heated outdoor pool • whirlpool
• health club • spa • gift shop
• business centre

Location: Santa Monica, 30 minutes
from Los Angeles airport

Former private mansion, the luxurious Fairmont Miramar is set in five acres of manicured gardens overlooking Palisades Park, Santa Monica Beach and the Pacific Ocean. The restaurants and shopping of Montana Avenue and the pedestrianised Third Street Promenade are a short walk away, as is Santa Monica Pier. Beverly Hills, Hollywood and Downtown are easily accessible by car or the regular bus services along Santa Monica Boulevard.

Five nights per person twin share, flying with British Airways from:

World Traveller £959, World Traveller Plus £1625, Club World £2899, First £4019

Above prices for travel 01Jan08-20Mar08. Extra nights from £113.

