When the exquisite Le Paradise Cove & Spa was entirely renovated in 2003, the aim was to create a seamless blend of tradition and modernity, offering guests the height of luxury and a sense of 'where they are'. Its boutique style lends itself to a quality of service and attention to detail sometimes lost at larger hotels. You'll never tire of relaxing in the elegant rooms, swimming in the fresh water pools or dining in the hotel's restaurants. This truly Mauritian hotel is inspired by the Indian trading posts of old, and designed with the luxuries of the new.
